Foreword

Our Constitution blesses us with basic freedoms, namely, Freedom of Choice, Freedom of Religion, and Freedom of Speech. Inherent in these is perhaps the most important element of all freedoms—The Freedom of Choice. Using this freedom, we have chosen to teach and nurse. Our reasons for teaching and nursing may differ, but they are still our choices.

Because we choose to teach, we must be dedicated and determined in preparing today's children for life in the changing world. Because we choose to nurse, we must be loyal in our endeavors and devoted to those in our care.

We, the seniors, have endeavored to foster such attributes as: scholarly living, faith in man, and trust in God. We are entering a world with many stumbling blocks and rugged paths, but we shall continue to strive though the mountain be high.

This edition of THE 1963 RAM will serve as a memorable account of our life at The Winston-Salem Teachers College.

Dedication

MRS. EVA H. MILLER
Advisor

We, The Senior Class of 1963, take this opportunity to thank our advisor for her kindness, concern, and genuine advice during our stay here at The Winston-Salem Teachers College.

We feel that this dedication is very much in order. With sincere appreciation and gratitude, we dedicate this issue of THE 1963 RAM to our devoted Advisor, MRS. EVA H. MILLER.

Special Recognition

DR. FRANCIS L. ATKINS
Former President

For his outstanding services for the growth of Winston-Salem Teachers College, we give special recognition and acknowledgments to Dr. Francis L. Atkins. He is a gentleman, advisor, teacher, administrator and friend whose first consideration was that of WINSTON-SALEM TEACHERS COLLEGE.

President and First Lady

Dr. Kenneth R. Williams, President

In Memoriam

The Rose Beyond the Wall

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night,

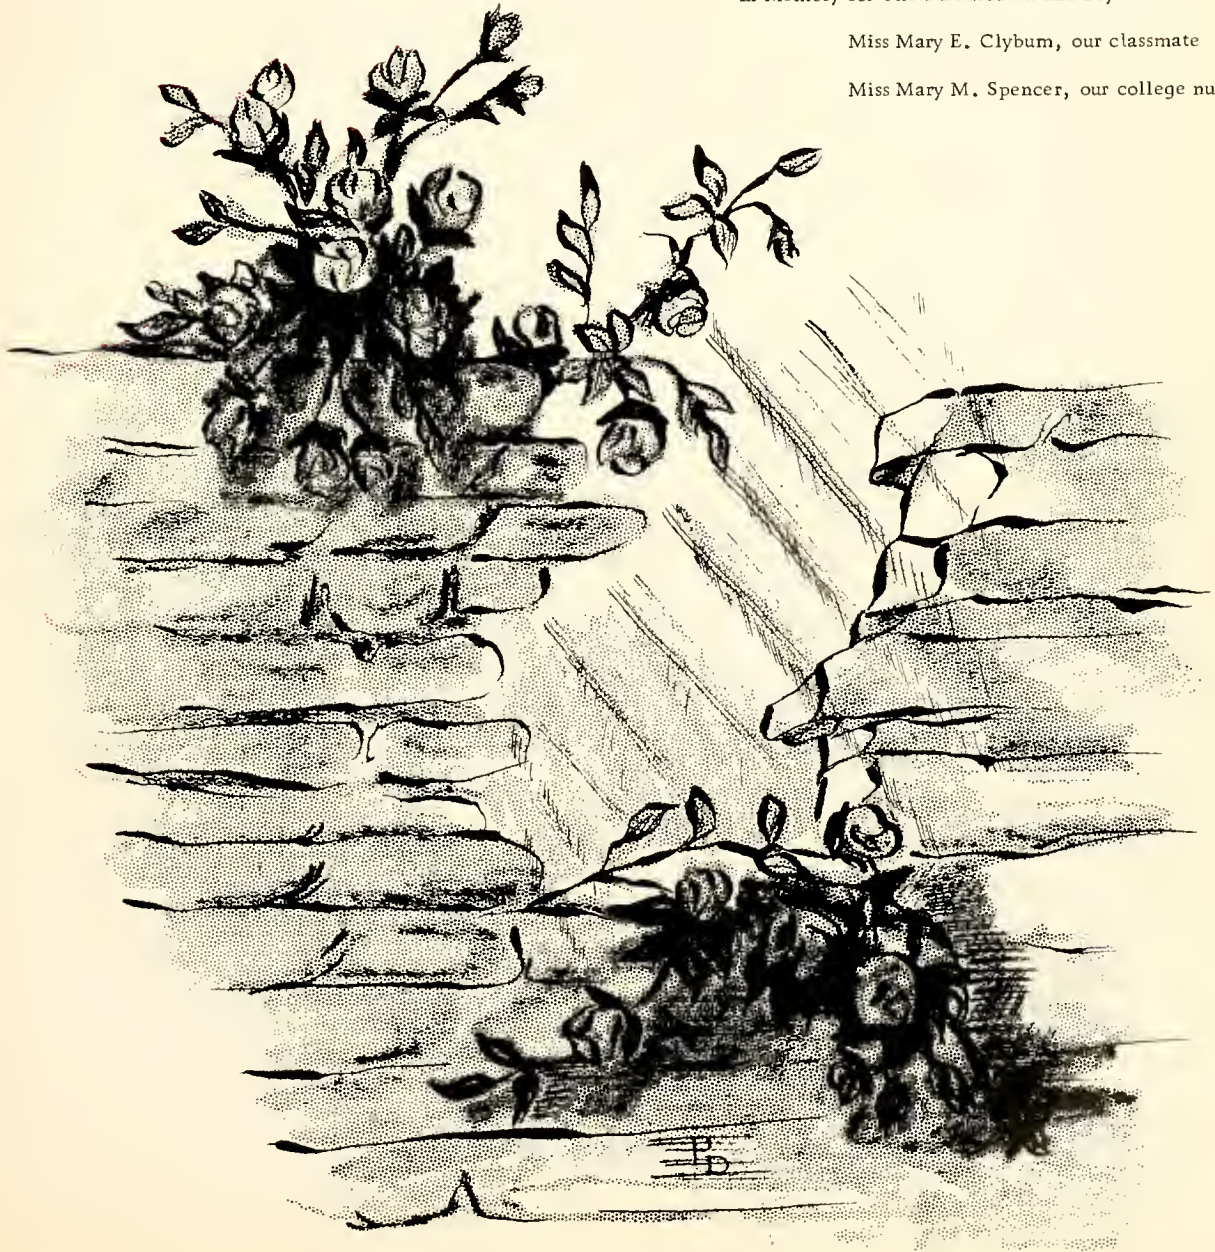

... a crevice in the wall
Through which there shone a beam of light,

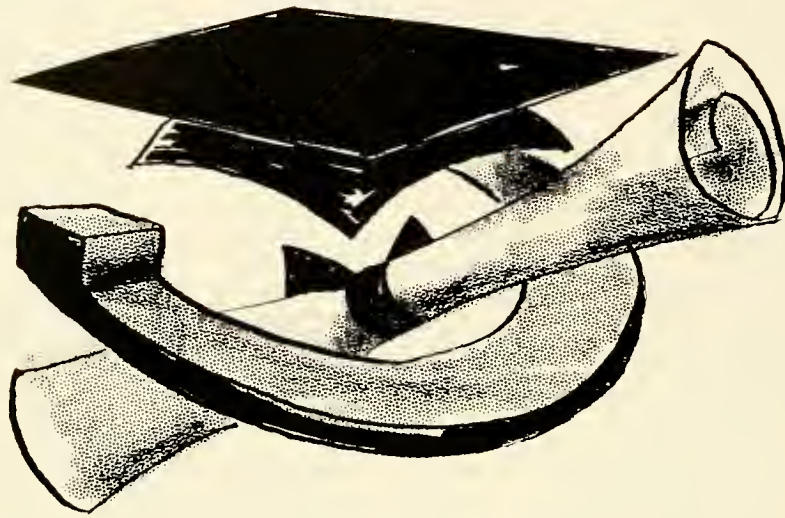

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve
And make our courage faint and fall?
Nay! Let us faith and hope receive—
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

In Memory for Their Dedicated and Loyal Services

Miss Mary E. Clyburn, our classmate

Miss Mary M. Spencer, our college nurse

Class History

Our sojourn at Winston-Salem Teachers College has been as the four seasons. We shall describe them as such.

It was Fall, and we, The Class of 1963, entered the gates of Teachers College with colorful hopes and dreams. We entered with the zeal of an August downpour, for we were eager to learn, therefore to serve. During the first week, orientated to the campus which we soon learned to love. After having taken the entrance examinations, we found that there were numerous co-curricular activities in which we were free to participate. Some of them were: The Band, The Choir, The Student NEA, The NAACP, The T. C. Players Guild, The Student Council, The Sunday School Choir, The Charm Club, The Student Nurses Association, and many others.

We had quite a task when it came to choosing our class officers, for among us were many able leaders. Nevertheless, we chose the following persons: Frank Kimbrough, president; Rosa Tribble, vice president; Carlena Hampton, secretary; and Charles Mayo, treasurer. Our student council representatives were Charles Mayo and Frank Kimbrough. We were also introduced to our lovely and talented advisor, Mrs. Eva H. Miller, who through able leadership, kept the seasons rolling.

The Freshman play, "For Whom The Telephone Rings," starred Reather Clinkscales, Mary Boykins, Cecilia Harrison, Raymond Rogers, and James Jarrell. We rated as having the best play after the results of the judges.

We found that we have many athletes among us also. Some of them were: Shively Willingham, Roger Adams, Charlie Mayo, Tim Autrey, Howard Blount, Harold Bell, Hubert Hargett, Frank Kimbrough, Reginald Livingstone, Barney Hood, Lutheran Wiley, Harry Lewis, Richard Hansberry, William Bowles, Donald Wills, and Bernard Bell. There were many others who were able athletes.

Charles Lassiter, Patsy Sanders, Helen Johnson, Dorothy Ellerbee, Clara Thompson, and many others joined the band.

Our year was colored even more by the coming of the Annual Teachers College Homecoming. Miss Margie Harris was chosen as the Freshman attendant to Miss Winston-Salem Teachers College, and Miss Yvonne Price was chosen as the Freshman attendant to "Miss Ram."

Our year was climaxed by The Annual Spring Concert given by the choir, among whom Gail Caesar, Dorothy Finger, and Juanita Falls were soloists.

Winter came and we returned as Sophomores, knowing that a year of hard work lay ahead. We kept our same able leaders as class officers and student council representatives.

It didn't take us long to realize that we had great talent among us. Larry Womble played one of the leading roles in the Greek Drama, "Electra," given by The T. C. Players Guild. From among us also was elected The Lady of The Year, Miss Rosa Tribble was the lovely lady.

Many of us set our sights upon Greekdom during this year, and we had many pledges.

For the nurses, the crowning event of the year was the capping exercise. Among those proud nurses were: Joan Richardson, Mary Boykins, Carlena Hampton, Doxie and Edna Robertson, Dorothy Dunn, Mable Lee, Helen Saunders, Jeanette Belfield, Jean Tate, Dorothy Russell, and many others.

Miss Patricia Wall, our attendant to Miss Teachers College, made a fashionable appearance at our homecoming festivities. Miss Mary Boykins was the sophomore attendant to "Miss Ram."

We worked doubly hard during this season, realizing that we were one step closer to our goal. With the help of Mrs. Miller, we closed this year with reasonable success.

At last Spring came, and we entered as Juniors and what an eventful year we had. Our enthusiasm had not waned for we knew that we would soon become seniors.

We began the year with a bang by electing the following class officers: Reather Clinkscales, president; Larry Womble, vice-president; Barbara Philpott, secretary; and Jane Banner, treasurer. Our student council representatives were Haywood Wilson and Andrew Clinton.

Homecoming had a special meaning this year, for we were responsible for choosing a candidate for Miss Teachers College. To our exhilaration, we were victorious, and Miss Rosa Tribble became our queen. Attending "Miss Ram" was Miss Annie Bullock, and Miss La Bonnie Carter was chosen as an attendant to Miss Student NEA.

Some of us made many academic achievements that year. Selected for Who's Who in College and Universities were: Rosa Tribble, Reather Clinkscales, Claudia Warren, Patricia Wall, Frank Kimbrough, Haywood Wilson, Gwendolyn Bailey, Gail Caesar, and Gloria Tate. Having attained the necessary qualifications, Gwendolyn Bailey and Gail Caesar were inducted into the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society.

Achievements and awards received during The Omega Psi Phi Achievement Week were as follows: Juanita Falls received a Certificate for her achievement in music, and Gail Caesar received an Award for having the highest scholastic average during her three years at Teachers College. Awards Day was quite eventful, our speaker was the notable Mrs. Wilma Rudolph Ward. Many members of our class received awards for their achievements.

The ominous shadow of Junior Qualification Tests hovered over us for a while, but the majority of us emerged successfully, and it was Spring again.

Miss Gail Caesar was among a group who went to Raleigh to represent Teachers College on "The Committee for a Better North Carolina."

Class History

The Simon Green Atkins Chapter Student National Education Association had a successful year under the leadership of James Jarrell who became the vice president of The North Carolina Student Education Association.

During this year, to our joy, our basketball team won The CIAA Championship, and we, The Junior Class, gave them our whole-hearted support. Many of the athletes from our class helped to make our team a success.

The band members received new uniforms, and the choir sang new songs. Ronald Osborne Play a leading role in the Spring Production, Othello.

Then came the big event of the year, The Junior-Senior Prom. Our theme was "Sayonara" and the decorations helped to develop the theme. Much work, energy, and time went into the planning for this event, but we were rewarded for our prom was a success.

To climax our year, we elected the officers who would lead us during our senior year. They were Larry Womble, president; Andrew Clinton, vice president; Delores Butler, secretary; Sarah Curry, assistant secretary; and Decie Gunn, treasurer.

Then Summer came and we realized that a great task was before us. It was time for us to do our student teaching, and it was wonderful experience to realize that we could actually teach.

Then came The Homecoming Season. It had a special meaning this year. It was truly a mark of success. We successfully launched a campaign second to none. With the dramatic and poetic skills of James Jarrell, our campaign speaker, we were victorious again and the charming and eloquent Miss Gail Caesar became our queen. Miss Gloria Jean Tate was chosen "Miss Ram," and Miss Pauline Hargrove was chosen Miss Student NEA.

Achievements and awards received during The Omega Psi Phi Achievement Week were as follows: Delores Butler, Band and Gail Caesar, Highest Scholastic Average and Music.

The following seniors worked hard with the chapter: Doris Cozart, Pauline Hargrove, Annie Jones, Charlotte Dawson, Macon Knox, Pollie Wilkins, Agnes Jones, Ida Gooch, Hazel Porter, Geraldine Moore, Kirby Thompson, William Blount and many others.

The Crossroads Africa Retreat was held at the college. Andrew Clinton was among the conferees. James Jarrell served as a registrar for the retreat. The theme for the retreat was "Africa's Challenge to American Students."

The formation of a college newspaper evolved during this season. The NEWS ARGUS was headed by Claudia Warren, Editor-in-Chief; Decie Gunn and Onita Baker, Feature Editors; Yvonne Price, Fashion Editor; Charles Brown, Sports Editor; Vivian McAuley, Advertisements; Macon Knox, Circulation, Hubert Hargett, and William Blount; Laverne Edmonds, Carlana Hampton, and Patricia Wall, Typists; Barbara Parks, Make-Up; and reporting news here and there was covered by Alyce Boyd, Rosa Tribble, James Jarrell, Lillian Brown, Frank Edmonds, Kirby Thompson, and Pollie Wilkins.

We were very fortunate to have participated in The Convocation of our college which marked the college's Seventieth Anniversary. Dr. Henry Hitt Crane was the notable speaker.

The highlight of the year was The Inauguration of our college president, Dr. Kenneth Raynor Williams. We were thrilled to have participated in The Inaugural Ceremonies and to have attended The Inaugural Ball.

The task of publishing a class yearbook was not easy. Many hours were set aside from studies. Engineering the project was James R. Jarrell, Editor-in-Chief; Andrew Clinton, Managing Editor; Decie Gunn, Executive Editor; Business Manager, Haywood Wilson; Gail Caesar, Treasurer; Jacqueline Pierce, Art Editor; Helen Johnson, Feature Editor; Yvonne Price, Assistant Managing Editor; Tommy McMannen, Assistant Business Manager; Kirby Thompson, Associate Art Editor; Alyce Boyd, Valeda Adams, and Jeanette Belfield, Assistant Feature Editors; Shirley McBee, Major Geer, Clinton Totten, Delores Butler, Barbara Smith, Janice Martin, Onita Baker, and others served on the Layout Staff.

The year was coming to a close, but we were continuously working. Excitement was in the air along with summer.

We proudly say that our stay here at Teachers College has been enjoyable, beneficial, and inspiring.

As we entered to learn, we shall go forth to serve.

Gail Caesar
Andrew Clinton

Class Prophecy

As we read this horoscope of success which is predicting the future of our fellow classmates, our eyes are stopped by SHERBY JEAN RODGERS, who is a big fashion designer in Paris, and she has just employed a famous model and cover girl, JEANETTE BELFIELD. KIRBY THOMPSON is her advertising agent.

As we wander into the future, we see ROSALYN COX, GEORGIA WIGGINS, and BETTY WOODARD stepping off Trans-World Airlines. They are stewardesses and they are looking good.

REGINALD LIVINGSTON is the owner of The Capital Cab Company in Washington, D. C. BERNARD BELL is his chief cab driver.

Admiring their beauty, we find CARLENA HAMPTON and JOAN RICHARDSON competing against Elizabeth Taylor for the leading role in "Love 'em and Leave 'em." My! I wonder who will win? Don't tell us because we have an idea. Tough competition, isn't it?

Do you remember the "Charlotteans"? Well, they have separated and they are singing under new names: BETTY WALKER RUCKS and VALADA ADAMS BOWENS. Can you beat that?

DELORES MARTIN, CLAUDIA RUCKER, HELEN JOHNSON, PATSY SAUNDERS, and DOROTHY ELLERBEE have a "swinging" Jazz Combo. KATHERINE COHEN is their manager.

HUBERT (Muddy Waters) HARGETT, CHARLIE BROWN, CLINTON TOTTEN, THOMAS DOUGLASS, and TOMMY McMANNEN have taken over "Smoky" Robinson and The Miracles place. They are singing rock'n roll and were voted the best vocal group in 1980. "Hang on in there!"

ERNESTINE WHITLEY, ELEANOR DUPREE, ANN DICK, and CORA CRAWFORD have opened a recreational center in Africa. JOYCE PEGUESE is supervisor.

RONALD GREGORY and FRANK RICHARDSON have opened a new club. It is called The "T C Country Club." BERNICE MARTIN and HORTENSE HARDY are their hostesses.

YVONNE PRICE, CAROLYN PORTER, BARBARA PARKS, and ADELAIDE BREWER are famous models for Ebony Fashions. They will appear at The Winston-Salem Teachers College for the fifth time. They were so wonderful they had to come back.

BLANCHE WALKER, CHARLOTTE DAWSON and SHIRLEY McBEE have been selected out of the top 10 best dressed women in the United States. They have exclusive shops in Paris, New York, and California. Their motto is: "Nothing but the best."

We stopped at Yale University and did you know that AUZUREA ROBINSON is a dormitory matron? She is doing a wonderful job.

The biggest splash of the year was the Eaves and Todd wedding. They were married on the moon in 1968. Their bridesmaids were: GERALDINE MOORE, ANNIE ANDERSON, RUTH HYMES, and DORIS ISLER. The best man was REGINALD WOODLEY.

Of all the things that would least be expected to happen, CLAUDIA WARREN is now editor of The Greensboro Daily News with ALYCE BOYD, LAVERNE EDMONDS and SARAH CURRY as Feature Editors. ONITA BAKER is the Managing Editor. MARGARET MAJORS and BILLIE R. GETER are the Art Editors.

Everybody is talking about CHRISTINE BUCH, JANET ELLIS, JANICE MARTIN, PRISCILLA CORPENING, BARBARA SMITH and CLARA THOMPSON and the wonderful job they are doing in Liberia concerning juvenile delinquency. GRACIE COLEY is the supervisor.

As we gaze further into the horoscope, we see our fabulous nurses CARONELLE COSTON, DORETHA McKNIGHT, and MARY WILKINS, working at George Washington Hospital, but I don't see how they get to work on time because they stand before the mirror patting their hair and looking at their "purty" faces. Their motto is "Everything must be in place before leaving the mirror."

VIVIAN McAULEY, who was our senior sweetheart, won the Miss America title of 1975 capturing the talent competition with her lame jokes. BRENETTA GRICE has won The Academy Award for her outstanding acting ability in "Gigi Goes Hawaii."

BARBARA NEILL is working at The Medical Center in New York City. She is the producer of a new Broadway play that will really be a sell out. The title is "This Cruel World."

MARY BOYKINS gave up the profession of nursing to dance with the Brown's Troupe in Garland, North Carolina. Wonder how she likes it? GLORIA JEANNE TATE is now competing against her. She is the star of The Night at Moore's Night Club in Atlanta, Georgia. Her famous dance is the Limbo. Her partner is CHARLES MAYO.

There is an uproar at Yale University because GWENDOLYN BAILEY and GAIL CAESAR are honor students. They are in the process of pursuing their Doctorate Degree in Music.

What do you know? PRINSTON McARTHUR finally became Supreme Basileus of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and FRANK KIMBROUGH is the Anti-Supreme Basileus.

MARY SUE DAYE, ARIE HUNTER, and JEANETTE KIMBROUGH are competing for a position in the U. N., wonder who will win?

Did you know that JAMES RICE is now principal at Carver Consolidated School? He is doing a terrific job. CALLIE ELLISON, MARGARET CARTER, LILLIE BROWN, LILLIAN BROWN, and LOSSIE ALSBROOK are teaching there also.

Class Prophecy

HAROLD BELL and SHIVELY WILLINGHAM are playing professional football with the Green Bay Packers. They are on the first team. Looking good.

ANDREW CLINTON is now the governor of Mississippi. ANNIE JONES is his secretary. Brave - huh?

We stopped by The Milky Way Cafe, and POMPEY STITH is the manager of it. MYRA'COOPER, DORIS COZART, MARILYN ALLEN and ELSIE HARDIN are his waitresses.

Did you know that VERNON HALL and JOHN COOKE owned and operated a Race Track for stock cars? WILLIAM BLOUNT is one of the chief racers.

CLIFFORD GRADY is head librarian at The Library of Congress. Others holding positions there are AGNES JONES and VERGIE MONTAGUE.

POLLIE WILKINS is now a big time lawyer in Little Rock, Arkansas. Her first case was We Want Equal Rights. However, she lost.

MARIE COUNCIL is principal at Merrick Moore Elementary School in Durham. WILMA CATES and ANNIE BULLOCK are on her staff.

Have you heard about the fabulous record that SHIRLEY WAGNER and GERALD PAULING made. It is boss. They are taking over Shirley and Lee's place.

Look Kirby, the horoscope is telling us now that REATHER CLINKSCALES is our first lady President of the United States. LARRY WOMBLE was her opponent. She used as her platform speech, "More Rights for Women." She selected BARBARA PHILPOTT as her press secretary.

TIM AUTRY is starring in the popular picture, "Slow Daddy", costarring is BARNEY HOOD. Most likely Tim will win an Oscar for his outstanding performance.

DONALD WILLS has just been selected the most valuable player of the year for his spectacular plays with The Cleveland Browns. He was only hospitalized twice during the season.

Can you imagine, BETTY HOLCOMB working as head nurse in the Emergency Room and DOROTHY DUNN is her supervisor at Grady Memorial Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia. FLORA TUCKER, BARBARA CHISHOLM, PATRICIA DEAN, DOROTHY RUSSELL, and MABLE LEE are also working there.

ROSALYN WOOTEN is now supervisor at Goldsboro State Hospital. VELMA McKOY, BETTY GREENE, ALEEN LONGCRIER, DOXIE and EDNA ROBERTSON are also working there. Poor patients.

KENNETH CARROLL has now joined the Louis Armstrong Band. He has just made his first public appearance on the Mitch Miller Show.

At The London Palladium, CONCHITTA MILLIGAN, DOROTHY FINGER, JUANITA FALLS, JANE BANNER, JOYCE BROWN, WILLIE POPE and WALTER CHILDS, III gave a splendid concert. It was held over three months.

We were coming back from Canada and guess who we saw at Niagra Falls on their honeymoon? None other than ROSA and HAYWOOD. They look so-o-oo happy. We stopped at Tuckahoe, New York for dinner, and we saw THOMAS GREEN and PATRICIA WALLS. Green is a physical therapist and Pat, his wife, is his receptionist.

In the gallery of fine arts, we find a portrait of The First Family painted by JACQUELINE PIERCE.

HARRY LEWIS is the coach of the track team at Pittsburg University. BILLY BOWLES and FRANK BOWENS are his assistants.

Have you heard of the Mr. and Mrs. Club of Hollywood? DELLA and MAJOR GREER, IDA and RICHARD (Jelly) HANSBERRY and DELORES and CHARLES LASSITER are exclusive members.

What do you know? LUTHERAN WILEY has signed a contract with the St. Louis Hawks for his famous jump shots and floor shows.

JAMES JARRELL is now editor of The New York Times. DECIE GUNN has just been employed as his secretary.

LA BONNIE CARTER MEADOWS has just opened a beauty salon. RITA KAY is her hair stylist and GWENDOLYN WOOLEY, RUTH LINDSAY, and MARIE CRENSHAW are her operators. Their motto is THE NATURAL LOOK-WINDBLOWN.

Oh, we almost forgot, CARLENA, WILLIE WILLIAMS is pastoring a church on the planet, Pluto. MACON KNOX, AZA McCRAE, PEGGY WARREN, JEANNE MCGILL, ERVINE HAIRSTON are his favorite members.

We, The Class of 1963, entered the golden portals of Teachers College to learn; we have been striving for a higher victory for when we leave those golden portals, we hope to serve.

Class Poem

Oh Senior Class, Oh Senior Class,
We now have finished the toilsome task.

To be the best in whatever we choose and win the fight when others lose.

Oh Senior Class of '63, your memories with us will always be.

Our members who have come and our members who have gone,

Will all rejoice together in auld lang syne.

What we have done and what we have said can never be bound together in something to be read.

—Farewell T. C., Farewell our love, we're going away we know not where,
or whether we'll ever see you again,
so farewell T. C., our love.

Dear ole T. C. whatever we are or hope to be, we surely owe it all to thee.

Wherever we go be it near or far, we'll always keep you in our hearts.

So as we leave and depart from thee,
keep in your heart the Class of '63.

Editor's Notes

The editing of THE 1963 RAM has been a challenge as well as a rewarding experience.

This has been a monumental task, fraught with frustrations and demanding continuous toil on the parts of many persons. There have been headaches and heartaches, frazzled nerves and frayed tempers, but in spite of all this, the task was finally finished. As we look at the finished product, we have feeling of pride in what we hope is a job well done.

Today, we are faced with many obstacles, but we must continue to climb though the mountain be high. It is not learning but the spirit of service that will give a teacher and a nurse a place in their community.

At this time, I would like to give thanks and show by appreciation to those persons who have given me courage and enlightenment. Thanks and acknowledgements to our advisor, Mrs. Eva H. Miller, for her cooperation and leadership, our instructors, staff, and the editorial staff.

As you depart to serve, may God bless each of you. I hope that each of you will continue to pursue your goals in life.

To my Seniors: This is my favorite Prayer. Read it often.
Eva Hamlin Miller, Advisor

Let me do my work each day;
and if the darkened hours of despair overcome me,
may I not forget the strength that comforted me in the desolation of other times.
May I still remember the bright hours that found me walking over the silent hills of my childhood, or dreaming on the margin of the quiet river,
when a light glowed within me, and I promised my early GOD to have courage amid the tempests of the changing years.
Spare me from bitterness and from the sharp passions of unguarded moments.
May I not forget that poverty and riches are of the spirit.

Though the world know me not,
may my thoughts and actions be such as shall keep me friendly with myself.
Lift my eyes from the earth,
and let me forget not the uses of the stars.
Forbid that I should judge others.
Lest I condemn myself.
Let me not follow the clamor of the world,
but walk calmly in my path.
Give me a few friends who will love me for what I am;
and keep ever burning before my vagrant steps
the kindly light of hope.
And though age and infirmity overtake me, and I come not within sight of the castle of my dreams,
teach me still to be thankful for life,
and may the evening's twilight find me gentle still.
